The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, November 16. 1708.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Nov. 20.

Palermo, Oct. 13.

THE Marquis de los Balbaſes our Viceroy has been dangerouſly Sick, but is now on the Recovery. Our Regency continue to uſe all imaginable Precautions for the Security and Quiet of this Kingdom. The 12 Regiments of Foot which have been ſome time raiſing in this Iſland, are but about half full yet; becauſe our Natives are not inclin'd to military Service: But we expect a conſiderable Reinforcement from France. A few Days ago the Iriſh General Mahoni purſuant to an Order he had receiv'd, imbark'd on a French Veſſel for Genoa: To Day 3 Ships were ſent with Stores of Proviſions and Ammunition for Meſſina. By a Decree of our Council all Houſekeepers, as well in the Towns as in the open Country, are commanded to give in a Liſt of the Number of Perſons they have in their Families. Several Perſons of Quality who had ſpoken with ſome Freedom of the preſent Government, have been taken into Cuſtody and ſent to the Caſtle of San Vito. In the mean time the good Inclination of the Sicilians for the Houſe of Auſtria encreaſes daily, to the great Perplexity of our Miniſters. The Galleys of France, and ſome French Veſſels, have landed at Meſſina great Stores of Proviſions and Ammunition, but no Men.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 17.

Madrid, Oct. 30. 'Tis adviſ'd by Letters from Catalonia, that Don Joſeph Val jeo was return'd to the Camp after having diſlodg'd the Miquelets from ſeveral Poſts of which they were poſſeſs'd in the Neighbourhood, from whence they made Incurſions into the Country newly Conquer'd, and about the Places which have ſubmitted to the King's Obedience. The ſmall Town of Grannena being their principal Place of Refuge, he made himſelf Maſter of it, caus'd it to be ſet on fire, and at the ſame Time poſſeſſed himſelf of the Caſtle into which the Enemy's Parties us'd ordinarily to retire. Another Body of Miquelets had appear'd about Graus, and the Count d' Eſtaing had ſent the Regiment of Lazar of Foot and that of Amezaga of Horſe, to put a ſtop to their Excurſions and to ſtreighten them. 20 Battallions and 16 Squadrons are drawn together at Valencia, and are to march forthwith towards Denia, with 6 Pieces of Cannon for Battery, 6 Mortars for Bombs, other leſs Mortars to throw Grenadoes, Ammunition, and all other Neceſſaries for attacking that Place in form. The King has promoted to the Rank of Brigadier of his Armies, Don Joſeph de Larranneta Governour of Portobelo.

Madrid, Oct. 30. That it might be publickly known the Queen is with Child, their Majeſties went this Evening, accompanied by the whole Court, from Buen Retiro to the Chappel of Atocha, to return ſolemn Thanks to Heaven for it. To Morrow they will come to the Palace here, their Majeſties having reſided in that of Buen Retiro ſince laſt Spring. Strict ſearch is made for Perſons ſuſpected ſuſpected of Diſaffection to the preſent Government, and within theſe 4 Days ſeveral ſuch have been taken up and committed to Priſon. The Detachment which the Duke of Orleans ſent to attack the Caſtle of Venaſque, was countermanded and is return'd to the Army without having done any thing, that Enterprize being now judg'd unneceſſary. The Prince of Darmſtad continues with 500 Horſe and 4 Regiments of Foot in the Conca de Tren, and the Count d' Eſtaing on the other ſide of the Noguera, both obſerving each other. The main Body of the Enemy's Troops commanded by the Count de Staremberg, are at Agramunt; and though that General himſelf be gone to Monſerrate (whither the Court of Barcelona is to come to perform a ſolemn Act of Devotion) 'tis believ'd he will ſoon return to his Army; for according to the Reports among the Enemy he will make ſome Attempt before he ſends his Forces into Quarters. In the mean time the Duke of Orleans is diſtributing his Men into Quarters: Which done, he will go to Saragoſſa, and ſtay there ſome Days to regulate the neceſſary Suſiſtance of the Troops, which will be very burthenſom to the Arragonians. The Detachment formerly mention'd to be ſent by his Royal Highneſs to Valencia, have joyn'd there the Troops commanded by the Chevalier d' Hasfeld; and are to begin the Siege of Denia on the firſt of November.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Nov. 16.

Hamburg, Nov. 9. The 2d of this Month the King of Denmark left Copenhagen, taking with him General Count Raventlau, and but a ſmall Retinue to attend him: He paſs'd over to the Iſland of Funen and came through Nybourg and Odenſee the 3d, and in the Evening arriv'd at Coldingen in Jutland, accompanied by M. Lente Counceller of State, M. Wieber his chief Secretary, and M. Walter, with a few Servants. His Majeſty lay laſt Night at Renſbourg, din'd to Day at Itzehoe, and will arrive to Night at Pinnenberg within 2 Leagues of this Place, or at Gluckſtad. Upon Advice of this our Magiſtrates have ſent three Deputies to make their Compliments to his Majeſty: Who was follow'd from Copenhagen by 4 of his Coaches, 4 Gentlemen of his Bed-Chamber, 4 Pages, 4 Trumpeters, 8 Footmen, and 50 Horſes; as alſo by ſome Miniſters of his Court; and 'tis reported his Majeſty will paſs the Elbe and take a long Journey, in which ('tis conjectur'd) he will have an Interview with ſome ſoveraign Prince.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 20.

Leipſich, Nov. 15. The King of Denmark being come over the Elbe, is expected here to Night. The young Count de Platen, firſt Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to the Elector of Hanover, is on his Way hither to Compliment his Daniſh Majeſty on the Part of his Electoral Highneſs. His ſaid Majeſty travels incognito, under the Name of Count of Oldenburg; and the better to be conceal'd, keeps at a conſiderable Diſtance before his Retinue. 'Tis ſaid he will take his Way by Nuremberg and Auſburg to Venice.
